7. List of figures, graphs, diagrams: lists the titles and page numbers of figures, graphs, diagrams in the order in which they appear in the thesis (Form 1.9).

8. Summarize the new contributions of the thesis

a) This page briefly presents new scientific, theoretical and practical contributions; new theses drawn from the research results of the thesis (in Vietnamese and English);

b) Present this section on 1 page of A4 size paper (Form 1.10).

Article 8. The main part of the thesis

The main part of the thesis has a layout consisting of the following sections and chapters:

1. Introduction: brief introduction of the research work, reasons for choosing the topic, objectives, objects, scope of research, scientific and practical significance of the topic.

2. Overview of the research problem: systematization of theory (if there is no separate chapter on theoretical basis); analyzing and evaluating research works closely related to the thesis topic that have been published at home and abroad; Point out the outstanding problems (research gap), determine the objectives of the topic, the content that the thesis will focus on researching and solving.

3. Theoretical basis and research methods: presents the theoretical basis, rationale, scientific hypothesis, research framework and research methods used in the thesis.

4. Research results and discussions: presentation of theoretical or empirical results and results of application; Analyze the results and raise unresolved issues. The discussion must be based on scientific data obtained during the research of the thesis topic or compared with the research results of other authors through references.

5. Conclusions and recommendations/recommendations/policy implications:

presenting new results of the thesis, conclusions drawn from research results; Policy recommendations or implications and recommendations for further studies to be undertaken.

Article 9. The last part of the thesis

1. List of published works/papers

a) List published works related to the research results of the thesis topic in chronological order;

b) The formulation of this list as prescribed for the catalogue of references.

2. Bibliography

a) List the documents cited and used in the thesis;

b) Separate presentation of 2 parts: Vietnamese documents and foreign language documents;
